

Name _____ Last _____ Period _____

Vietnam Journal Entry #1: Clarify the Research

info. from: www.bcoleman.org/vietnam

1. What is "Butterflies of Vietnam?"

2. Two teachers and one researcher are named on the TeachLive Vietnam website. Who are they, where are they from and what are their roles?

A) Name _____ from: _____ Role: _____

B) Name _____ from: _____ Role: _____

C) Name _____ from: _____ Role: _____

3. TeachLive is funded by National Geographic and Earthwatch Institute. You probably already know the goal of National Geographic - explain it here. AND - what is a goal of Earthwatch (www.earthwatch.org)?

4. What are the six steps in the "Scientific Method?" You may need to look in your text book to refresh your memory.

A. List the steps (in order) below:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

B. Now explain why scientists don't always follow these steps when conducting research.

5. Tam Dao National Park is not the only place where research is being done relating to butterflies and their role in forest health. What are three others?

A) _____:

B) _____:

C) _____:

6. List two goals of the research in the Butterflies of Vietnam project.

A) _____:

B) _____:

YOUR HOMEWORK:

Use the links on Mrs. Coleman's TeachLive Vietnam website (listed at the top of this page). Find and read about Vietnam's efforts to increase awareness about conservation, then answer the questions below.

1. When was "Education for Nature" established (also called ENV) and what is its purpose?

2. Name two activities that ENV does in schools to accomplish its goals?

a. _____

b. _____

3. What would you think about working in a project like Butterflies of Vietnam or Education for Nature? Explain your answer.